Handling of Sales.

The library recommends that for any piece to be marked as sold, the buyer must put down 25% in cash. (To be held by the library or artist)

If there is a buyer for your piece of work when you are not at the library, the library can give out your phone number so you can deal with the buyer. If you prefer, the library can handle the sale for you.

I request that the library accept a check for the sale price -- 10% (change if you want to donate more) made out to me. And a second check for 10% of price made out to the library.
